

PATRICE M. GILMORE, CPSD

Patrice has over 15 years of experience in the construction industry in the areas of supplier diversity and project management. She is known for her ability to manage supplier diversity programs that create an environment of inclusion for small, minority and women-owned businesses. As Vice President of Diversity and Inclusion at Holt Brothers Construction, she focuses on identifying diverse contractors and vendors for projects, establishing internal program goals, tracking program results, monitoring contract compliance, and maintaining relationships with clients and members of the local community.

Passionate about providing small and minority businesses equal access to opportunities, Patrice's work has been recognized with such awards as the Greater Durham Chamber of Commerce Circle of Influence Diversity Award and the NC Department of Administration Office of Historically Underutilized Business Industry / Agency Individual Award. Her professional affiliations include the Airport Minority Advisory Council, the American Contract Compliance Association, the Carolinas Minority Supplier Development Council, the Institute for Supply Management, the National Association of Minority Contractor, the NC Minority / Women Business Enterprise Coordinators Network, the NC A&T State University Construction Management Advisory Board, the NC State HUB Advisory Committee, the UNCCH HUB Advisory Committee and the United Minority Contractors of North Carolina.

Patrice graduated with honors from North Carolina Agricultural & Technical State University in 1999 with a Bachelor of Science in Construction Management. In 2013, she received Certified Professional in Supplier Diversity designation from the Institute for Supply Management. In 2015, Patrice received her Contract Compliance Administrator certification.
